The Office of General Counsel has determined that it is necessary for the regulations to recite the authorities on which they are based.

Most Agency regulations are issued pursuant to the authorities of the National Security Act of 1947, the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, or Executive Order 12036. The proposed revision ☐ The Central Intelligence Agency, includes a statement to this effect and also indicates that if other authorities are applicable, they will be cited within the regulations to which they apply.

Your approval of this revision will eliminate the need for repetitious citing of basic authorities throughout the regulations.

The Office of General Counsel concurs in this proposal.
